

Mike The Monarch
It's Suzi
The Millennium Bug!

Suzi the Millennium Bug is from the mysterious East

You can't get theah from heah.

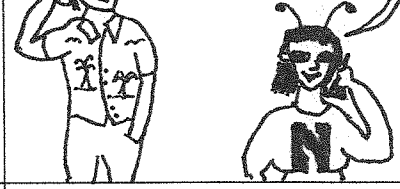

It's not fah;
I'll drive in my cah.

She came to Illinois and was soon right at home

Where you at?

Across the viadock
from Soldier's Field—over by the Jewel's

She joined a habitat restoration group

I've always wanted to be a Popular Geek!

She was a terror to alien species

Now you see the violence inherent in the system!

And great at collecting and propagating native seeds

It's a livin' thing...

Abacadabra!
native habitat!

Woodland brome sure is Fuzzy!

When Mike the Monarch met her, he was struck palindromic

Iz U Suzi!?!?

They traveled the world together

Let's skip the national park and see an obscure local festival!

They were married in a Cook
County forest preserve

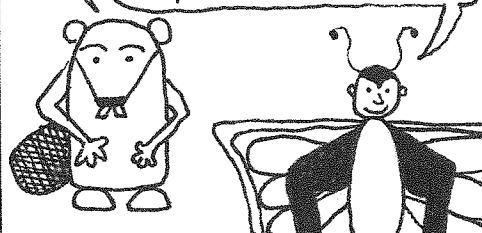

Will you wear corn
at the wedding?

No, but I will don wheat!

Mike! This is too obscure! People won't understand it!

That's OK, as long as one person understands it

Now it's time for my important message

No, this:

What, Hooray
for Volunteers?

Happy 10th anniversary, sweetheart!
